THE ART OF JAPANESE TEA WITH MIO SHUDO

Step aboard Fingal, Edinburgh's luxury floating hotel, for a refined twist on the classic afternoon tea. In this serene maritime setting, guests will be welcomed into the tranquil world of Japanese tea culture, guided by Urasenke Tea Master Mio Shudo.

Dressed in her ceremonial kimono, Mio Shudo will perform the authentic Japanese tea ceremony, sharing the centuries-old rituals and philosophy behind this graceful art. Her expert guidance will accompany a curated selection of flavourful teas, each perfectly paired with a Japanese-inspired afternoon tea menu crafted by Fingal's chefs.

This unique experience blends cultural richness with culinary delight - an afternoon to savour and remember.
